A non-refundable $350 certification fee is required when scheduling the exam or at the time of application. The certification fee includes IC&RC reciprocity and examination fee. Applicants who do not pass the IC&RC exam on the initial attempt will be charged $125 to retake the exam within 6 months of the initial exam date. If you do not submit your application within 6 months of taking and passing the exam, you will need to re-take the exam and will be charged $350 to do so. Insufficient applications will be returned for completion and a $25 fee will be assessed for each subsequent review.

The IC&RC exam is computer-based and offered remotely as well as at IC&RC approved designated testing locations in New Hampshire and other states. You will be contacted by the Prevention Certification Board of NH upon receipt of your exam application and payment to schedule your exam and select your exam location. Regardless of when the exam is taken, your certification is not effective until your application is submitted and approved by the Peer Review Committee. Certification dates are recorded based on the completion and approval of applications and passage of the IC&RC exam.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I understand the above rules and regulations of the Prevention Certification Board of NH, an IC&RC member board.
